Expressions of Interest for Chrystal Dance Prize - Projects Now Open

VICTORIA, B.C. – Western Canada's richest dance prize for international collaboration, the Chrystal Dance Prize- Projects, is accepting expressions of interest from dance artists, companies and collectives in Western Canada for 2022. The Chrystal Dance Prize - *Projects supports exceptional dance research and/or creation between a Western Canadian dance artist, collectives or companies and an international dance artist(s), interpreter, or choreographer. Dance Victoria will award $44,000 in the Chrystal Dance Prize - Projects category. The prize money may be allocated across multiple projects or can be awarded for a single project.

Fast Facts About the Chrystal Dance Prize - Projects

- Expressions of interest are accepted from September 20 until October 15, 2021, at 5:00 p.m. Pacific Time.
- The Chrystal Dance Prize is generated from a bequest made by Dance Victoria patron, Dr. Betty "Chrystal" Kleiman, to the Victoria Foundation.
- Dance artists, companies and/or collectives applying for the prize must live or be headquartered in Manitoba, Saskatchewan, Alberta, British Columbia or the Yukon.
- The prize supports collaborative projects that involve a Canadian artist(s) working with another dance artist (choreographer or interpreter) outside of Canada.
- The prize is open to any dance artist that is active in the professional dance milieu, has worked with a range of dance artists or companies and has a history of dance creation, and is making application as an independent dance artist or as a member of a small collective or established dance company. Companies and collectives submitting proposals must also have a body of work and a history of commissioning work.
- A committee of dance professionals is assembled each year to select the recipients.
- The prize recipient(s) may also have the opportunity for a two-week residency at Dance Victoria Studios.
