FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

November 23, 2022

Dance Days - It'll Move You January 13-22, 2023

Victoria, B.C. - Each January, Dance Victoria produces a free, 10-day community celebration of dance called Dance Days, with free classes, workshops, and studio showings at local dance studios. Dance Victoria also hosts Rough Cuts (works-in-progress) by some of the west coast's hottest choreographers. As a longstanding community collaboration for the past 13 years, Dance Days engages the community in diverse and accessible dance forms, while promoting dance appreciation.

Here's three compelling reasons why you want to participate in Dance Days 2023:

1. Ten days of free dance classes all over town – Local studios are offering an array of free adult dance classes in all kinds of styles. Have you ever wanted to try modern dance, ballet, flamenco, ballroom, dance roller skating and more? Well, get out your dancing shoes! Now, is your chance – for free. Look for the online calendar at DanceVictoria.com in early January.
2. Rough Cuts on January 22 – Experience a selection of works-in-progress by these Dance Victoria resident artists followed by informal discussions. Dance Victoria Studios, 2750 Quadra Street, 2:00 to 6:00 p.m., Free with a suggested donation of 10 dollars

 - Kemi Craig

Their works explore animality and interdependence with living things; Indigenous stories of injustice and healing past, present and future; and the connection between spectatorship and performativity. Due to limited capacity, patrons are asked to visit DanceVictoria.com in early January and RSVP for each show.

3. Out Innerspace Dance Theatre in *Bygones – Bygones kicks off Dance Days on January 13, 2023, at the McPherson Playhouse. Creators Tiffany Tregarthen and David Raymond have performed for Victoria audiences before with their popular creations Me so you so me, Major Motion Picture, and in Kidd Pivot's award-winning Betroffenheit and Revisor. Now they are bringing a work, co-commissioned by Dance
